4. Market Analysis

4.1 Target Market

HoopGear Pro serves four primary customer segments:

Segment	Description	% of Revenue
Amateur Athletes	Recreational players aged 14–35 purchasing personal gear	38%
Schools & Universities	Bulk orders for PE departments and school teams	27%
Professional Clubs	Club-level teams and semi-professional leagues	21%
Coaches & Trainers	Individual coaches purchasing training equipment	14%

4.2 Competitive Landscape

The basketball accessories market in West Africa is fragmented, with most competitors being general sporting goods stores rather than basketball-focused specialists. HoopGear Pro's specialization gives it a distinct competitive advantage.

Competitor	Strength	Our Advantage
SportZone Nigeria	Large store presence	Deeper basketball-specific range
Konga Sports	Strong online platform	Expert curation & after-sale support
Grey Market Imports	Low price	Authenticity, warranty, quality assurance
International Brands Direct	Brand recognition	Local availability & personalized service
